

OXFORD v CAMBRIDGE RELAYS AND FIELD EVENTS MATCHES

Held at Iffley Road, Oxford (with some field events at Abingdon) on Sunday March 4, 2001

"CUAC Girls Score More" [Another partisan view from Andy French]

On Sunday 4th March a convoy of Cambridge vehicles journeyed to the hallowed Tartan of Iffley Road for the annual Inter-Varsity Field Events and Relays match. Refusing to conform to those gauche modern concepts of adequate facilities the venerable site, seemingly unchanged since those halcyon days of Bannister's finest four minutes, served as a stage for fine competition, drama and tragedy.

Our hosts opening gambit was a lesson in the ancient British tradition of Divide and Conquer as our throwers and pole vaulters were bussed of to distant Abingdon. This shameful attempt to curtail the achievements of our best all rounders Katie Taylor, Adrian Hemery and Siobhan Dennehy was dashed by buoyant enthusiasm and gritty desire. Katy competed in six events (Javelin, Shot, 4x100m, 4x200m, 4x400m, 4x200h) breaking many of her own personal records. Adrian performed a heptathlon of sorts (4x110m and 4x200m hurdles, High Jump, Pole Vault, Shot, Hammer and Javelin) with highlights being an impressive 1.80m High jump and a storming 25.6s last leg of the 200m hurdles. Siobhan's high jump of 1.55m added to similarly impressive heights by Amanda Wallace and recently crowned BUSA indoor champion Judy Payne to take the match record to, literally, new levels. While the girls were jumping, M Elkahawad's 'house of pain' hammered their doll-like Oxford competitors with a match record in the ball and chain category. Ellen Migo and Becca Wright threw impressive distances of 31.04m and 29.58m respectively while the Mistress of Throws towered over all with 36.47m. Not to be outdone by Katy's near airborne celebrations, Rosie Curling hopped, skipped and jumped her way to an impressive Triple Jump personal best of 10.94m. She also won the Long Jump with 5.33m.

Across the gender divide Simon Thomas and Richard Edden showed their class (and height advantage) clearing 1.95m and 1.90m respectively in the men's high jump. There was no Discussion about who was the best heavy frisbee thrower as Karthic Tadinada spun out 34.68m. Sadly our own Thor acolytes could not emulate the victory of our ladies in the Hammer competition. International intervention took the title from Adrian, Ben Poynter and Tom Guglielmi. This didn't stop first year Tom from notching an impressive personal best however. The other Tom (Richards) bowed out of the Pole Vault which allowed Adrian and Ed Snelson to shine clearing 3.50m and 3.00m respectively. Tom instead tackled a more horizontal problem of the Long and Triple Jumps along with Ben Goss, N. Childs, M. Kom and I. Anane. Oxford were not as strong as previous years but unfortunately still managed to edge victories in both events.

On the track the third record of the day fell to a quartet of quality in Jacqui le Geyt, Rosie Curling, Katy Taylor and Lucy Stockbridge. A powerful 25.6s leg by Katy Taylor helped in no small measure to reduce the 4x200m match record to 1:47.0. Indeed Katy was so eager to get away she almost repeated the changeover debacle of the mens 4x200m. Despite the knowledge of certain disqualification, credit must go to the team for carrying on in some style and eventually winning the race.

Special mention goes to Rob Harle and Yasser Baki who ran blinding legs of 22.0s and 21.9s respectively. Luckily no such problems dogged the men's 4x100m team of Rob, Yasser, Matt Scase and Navid Childs. Matt stunningly reversed Oxford's early lead around the last bend and silky smooth Rob floated home nearly a second in front of Oxford. Sadly the spectre of disqualification continued to haunt both teams. Oxford's casualties were the men's and women's 4x100m and the men's 4x110m hurdles. The latter was perhaps a fair reward for gusty performances by Nick Edwards, Alastair Burgess, Martin Knight and Adrian Hemery. All however were put in their place by the newest old boy Dr. Nwokoro who glided over the hurdles in 15.9s. Cambridge ladies lost out to the demon of disqualification in the 4x200m hurdles. This was a bit of a shame as Siobahn Dennehy, Jemma Wayne, Anna Guthrie and Katy Taylor all ran storming legs, finishing a massive ten seconds ahead of Oxford. With the exception of the women's 4x100m, won in a stylish 51.0s by the same 4x200m record breaking squad, Cambridge ladies lost out in the other track events. However with a 6:1 landslide victory in the field both teams could go home satisfied.

Cambridge men were even after the sprint and hurdles events. It was time for our normally quiet and reserved long distance runners to seize the day. First year Louis Dale carved out a 1:58.4 first leg of the 4x800m and passed to Andy Baddely. Running seemingly without effort (though he tells me that's just for show) Andy blew away the Oxford pretenders with an obscenely fast 1:52.0. (Which if not done as part of a relay would earn him his light Blue jacket). Andy Brown and CUAC President Charlie Boddam-Whetham maintained a seven second advantage to take Cambridge into the lead in the men's track competition.

With the spectre of Oxford's extremely strong 4x400m team looming the 4x1500m became the most critical race of the day for the light blues. Corin Hughes got us off to a good start running 15 seconds faster than his Oxford rival in 4:01.1. Oxford then ate into the lead maintained by Oli Mytton and Andy Brown. Facing a deficit of about thirty metres Andy Baddely at first looked like he could not produce the sort of magic displayed in the 4x800m. However, he showed his experience as Britain's top ranked 1500m junior by slowly catching up with his rival, leaving enough energy to cast him aside over the last 200m with a startling change of pace to finish in 3:57.8 and secure a match win for Cambridge. Some fine runs by the Oxford 4x400m team served as a warning of the potential closeness of the forthcoming Varsity Match. Although Cambridge were never really in contention, a fine run by Hugh Venables (50.0s) again underlined the quality of our distance runners.
